Developing, Delivering and Managing RJCP Activities

About the Workshop

Under the RJCP Funding Agreement, activities play a large role in job seeker participation and compliance. Understanding the process behind developing, implementing and managing activities is crucial to the success of RJCP

This 1-day workshop will allow participants to build their knowledge of RJCP activities as both a model for service delivery and participation and a pathway to employment. Participants will examine the contractual requirements around the establishment, funding and implementation of RJCP activities.
